"Women Living the Abundant Life Prayer Hour"

We are excited to inform you that our very own Minister Tonya Jones has begun the "Women Living the Abundant Life Prayer Hour". This is not only a prayer hour but a massive movement. As women we naturally multi-task and at times we need to just vent. When we have the opportunity to vent it is good to know that there is someone there standing to hold our hand and pray for us. We have set up a scheduled time for you to call in and do just that. Information detailing dates and times for this power-packed prayer hour will be forth coming by the end of October. The movement entails our getting together on a weekly basis and scheduling our first "Over Night" and the 2009 Conference. Yes GWOE Ministry is on the move and we hope you are on board with us as God continues to take us higher and higher.

Family:

Thank you for your continual prayers for my family. Everyone is doing very well. Please keep me in prayer; I am facing the loss of my younger son whom I have cared for, for the past two and ½ years. I was in the process of adopting when his biological mother came back and contested everything. Our family is experiencing some emotional strain and we need your prayers. I ask that you pray God's will be done for my son Joseph.

Sabrina my sixteen year old is doing well. Its band season and she is busy and so am I driving back and forth! She plays the flute and the trumpet so things for her are quite interesting right about now. She is holding an A average in school and studying very hard.
